School Holiday Cooking Classes

Hills Market Kitchen for Kids—Friday 10th July 2009

Do you have a budding Jamie Oliver living at your place? The Hills Market Kitchen in the Old Woollen Mill at Lobethal has added an exciting new programme to its list. The day is all about food and geared at kids aged 8 – 15 years. Our budding chefs will prepare a nutritious menu and enjoy a shared lunch together. After lunch it is back into the kitchen to bake some goodies for afternoon tea and to take home. A great way to spend a wintry day during the holidays, making new friends and enjoying great food.

Cost: Kids holiday program $75.00 per child, places are limited

Time: 11.00am – 4.00pm Friday 10th July
